Illinois Health and Hospital Association

Beginning Jan. 1, 2024, hospitals with obstetric units must provide information to new mothers about human milk donation.

This resource from the Mothers' Milk Bank of the Western Great Lakes fulfills this requirement and is available in both English and Spanish.