A dynamic 3-part virtual leadership series offered through the South Dakota Association of Healthcare Organizations

Healthcare requires leaders who can inspire, communicate effectively, and guide teams through constant change. The Leadership Expedition is designed specifically for hospital and health system teams looking to strengthen leadership capacity at every level of their organization.

This engaging three-part virtual series equips participants with practical tools, clear strategies, and actionable insights to build stronger teams, improve communication, and lead confidently—especially in times of chaos and uncertainty.

Sessions include:

- Leadership at Every Level | January 20, 12-1 pm CST
- Magnetic Communication | February 17, 12-1 pm CST
- Leading Through Chaos | March 17, 12-1 pm CST

Session 2: Magnetic Communication

Harnessing communication to unify and inspire teams

Clear, compelling communication is one of the most vital skills in healthcare leadership. This session dives into the science and art of communication—and why leaders must be intentional in the way they speak, act, and engage with others. Participants will learn the Four Movements of Communication and how to use them to connect teams, build trust, and strengthen partnerships across departments.

- Discover the Four Movements of Communication: Words, Speeches, Gestures, and Actions
- Use communication to inspire alignment and reduce misunderstanding
- Apply techniques to motivate staff and enhance patient-centered culture
- Cultivate magnetic communication that unifies people during change
