Updated Illinois Crime Victim Compensation Program Poster for Hospital Emergency Departments Now Available

The Office of the Illinois Attorney General, in conjunction with the Secretary of State's Office, has updated posters notifying patients about the Illinois Crime Victim Compensation Program. These posters are required to be posted in hospital emergency departments. Hospitals can download the newest version of the poster here.

The Attorney General will also provide hard copies of the posters for hospitals if requested. Interested hospitals should contact Kimberly Murray at 312-814-2468 or kmurray@atg.state.il.us for further information.

As a reminder, the IHA Legal Department maintains a resource on the IHA website of federal and state signage and notice requirements for hospitals.
